

Claudia Luxon

- Program Manager, LL.M. in International Legal Studies

Short Bio

Claudia Luxon holds a Mag.Phil. from the University of Vienna (1985), an M.A. in Museums and Galleries Administration from the Dept. of Arts Policy and Management, City Univ. London (1988), as well as Certificates in Cultural Management from Vienna's IKM at the Academy of Music and Performing Arts (1989).

Most of her work has been devoted to educational projects that build and develop external contacts and networks for the units in cultural or educational institutions in which she works: 1992-95: Federal Commission for the Preservation of Historic Monuments; 1995-2000: Dept. of Museum and Audiences at the Kunsthistorisches Museum; 1995-97: Institute of Classical Archaeology at the University of Vienna; 1997-98: Academy of Fine Arts; 1998: Federal Ministry f. Foreign Affairs, Unit I/3: Press and Information (EU-Presidency); 2000-07: Music Publishing - Strauss Edition Wien; since 2006: Dept. of European, International and Comparative Law at the University of Vienna. Her professional experience includes: establishing framework agreements and programs to build the audience/customer base, organising fairs and academic congresses, establishing and managing courses and postgraduate programs.